

Ramon Torrent was until his retirement in September 2017 a Professor of Political Economy and International Economic Law at the Universitat de Barcelona. He launched in 2008 and directed for 10 years the extinct Master of Laws in International Economic Law and Policy (IELPO LL.M.), a top-notch program that gathered salient Faculty and talented students from more than 84 nationalities, and whose graduates currently occupy leading positions worldwide. He also directed a high number of online courses organized by Fundaci3n CEDDET in the areas of regional Integration and International relations, ad-hoc trainings and conferences and summer law schools, on top of his teaching/research duties. He also set up the International Chair WTO/Regional Integration, first Chair ever created by an agreement between the WTO and a University (2002), and was the Coordinator of the participation of the Universitat de Barcelona in the Virtual Institute of UNCTAD.

He has coordinated a number of International, mainly EU-funded, projects of cooperation in Higher Education with Latin America, the Mediterranean, the EU's Neighbouring Countries and Africa. He launched the process of the Arab – Euro Conferences on Higher Education (AECHE). He is currently (2019) the scientific coordinator of the Horizon 2020 project EULAC Focus ("Giving Focus to the cultural, scientific and social dimension of EU – CELAC relations") as well as the President of "Observatorio de las Relaciones UE – AL, OBREAL- GLOBAL OBSERVATORY" an association with legal personality whose members are, currently, more than 30 institutions of Higher Education and Research from the European Union, Latin America and the Caribbean, the Middle East and India.

Between 1988 and 1998, he was a member and later the Director for International Economic Relations in the Legal Service of the EU Council. He is one of the five EU-proposed members of the roster of arbitrators for the EU agreements with Central America, Peru and Colombia, Chile, CARIFORUM, Moldova, Georgia, Ukraine, Korea, SADC and Central Africa.